Councillor Nick Mantas Represents Toronto at Global Cities Congress in Seoul

Councillor Nick Mantas (Ward 22, Scarborough–Agincourt) recently represented the City of Toronto at the Metropolis 40th Anniversary World Congress in Seoul, South Korea.

The Congress brought together over 470 participants from more than 80 cities and metropolitan regions around the world to exchange ideas on inclusive governance, sustainability, and smart city innovation.

As Head of Toronto’s Delegation, Councillor Mantas participated in high-level discussions on metropolitan collaboration, housing, climate resilience, and technology. He also attended Smart Life Week, Seoul’s international technology showcase, focusing on “Inclusive AI for the Vulnerable.”

“Toronto is proud to stand alongside leading global cities committed to building inclusive, resilient, and sustainable communities,” said Councillor Mantas. “Sharing our experiences and learning from others helps us shape better solutions for all Torontonians.”

This engagement underscores Toronto’s commitment to international collaboration and knowledge exchange to strengthen urban innovation and metropolitan development.
